

Call for Papers

Scholars from Slovak and international institutions are invited to present their unpublished research in all areas of economics – theoretical, empirical, experimental, institutional, or policy-oriented. The main objective of this meeting is to foster contacts and lasting academic cooperation among domestic and international economists.

Young economists, PhD. students, and post-docs are particularly encouraged to submit a paper. As an additional benefit, members of the Slovak Economic Association will provide them with a written review of the selected papers.

Topics of interest:

All fields from economic research are welcome; from history of economic thought, through monetary, banking, finance, growth, labor, auctions and pricing, to experimental and behavioral economics.

Keynote speakers:

Benedikt Herrmann

Joint Research Centre, European Commission

Ľuboš Pástor

*Booth School of Business, University of Chicago
National Bureau of Economic Research (NBER)
Centre for Economic Policy Research (CEPR)
